

KITCHEN EMPLOYEE

At Proef, you can enjoy fine wines and delicious food all day long. The inspiration for the dishes comes from the mediterranean and has a streetfood touch. We also host many parties where we provide special wine and food pairings.

We have reached the point where the chef can no longer work alone. That's why we are immediately looking for a second cook who can fully replace the chef in his absence.

We are looking for someone who loves good food and enjoys the challenge of presenting each dish beautifully. You work independently, are energetic, and quality-driven. Your English is sufficient enough to communicate with our Greek chef. You enjoy having fun at work and don't easily get discouraged. Additionally, you are great at teamwork and aren't afraid of a pile of dishes.

We offer:

- A 4-day workweek
- Competitive salary
- 8% holiday pay
- Contract duration to be discussed with a 1-month trial period
- 25 vacation days according to the hospitality sector CAO, based on a full-time contract (38 hours per week)
